
Acton Man Is Taken By Death Last Fri- day Night, Feb. 21

Chris C. Gish Victim of Pneumonia Buried Tuesday

Chris C. Gish, Acton resident, died suddenly at his home last Friday evening, at 10:30 o'clock, February 21, from pneumonia. Funeral services were held at Mumaw's Funeral Chapel in Lancaster, Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, with Graydon McClelland, Acton Community Church pastor, officiating. Burial was made at the Acton cemetery.

Mr. Gish was born February 22, 1867, in the state of Texas. He resided in Colorado and Arizona before coming to California in 1913, and for the last thirteen years had made his home in Acton. He was a man who will be greatly missed in his community.

The survivors are his wife, Mrs. Bess May Gish; three sisters, Mrs. M. Wilson, Reno, Nev., Mrs. Ella Orr, Hayden, Arizona, and Mrs. Mary Rhinehart of Gonzales, Tex.; three brothers, William, George and John, all living in Arizona; a niece Miss Alma Wilson of Santa Paula, and a nephew, Alex Wilson of Reno.

Pallbearers at the funeral services Tuesday were Edwin Newton, Ed J. Platz, Dean Boore, Edward Adams, Joe Scaroni and Joe Shadler.

Following the funeral, Miss Alma Wilson and Alex Wilson remained to spend several days with their aunt.
