

Virgil Thompson rites

Graveside services for Virgil "Rusty" D. Thompson, 54, were conducted Wednesday, Feb. 27, at the Acton Cemetery. The Chapel of the Valley was in charge of arrangements.

A Valley resident the past three years, Mr. Thompson was a retired carpenter who had worked at his trade 30 years and was also a veteran of the Korean conflict.

He was a member of the Acton Community Club and Carpenters Union Local 1506, Los Angeles. He was born Oct. 5, 1925, in Duncan, Okla., and died Feb. 19 in Palmdale.

Mr. Thompson is survived by his wife, Dorothy Thompson of the family home; eight children, Russel D., Douglas A. and Cherie R. Thompson, all of Acton; Carol Atwood of Sun Valley; Sharon Thompson of Tujunga; Cora Lee Thompson of Oregon; Virgil S. Thompson of Nebraska; William G. Thompson of Sun Valley;

Seven grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews.