

Obituaries

John H. Martin

John H. Martin of Lancaster who had owned and operated the Martin Texaco Service Station on Sierra Highway for 35 years, died Nov. 5 in the Lancaster Community Hospital. He was 94.

Graveside services will be held tomorrow at 10.a.m. at Lancaster Cemetery with Rev. Lloyd Hall of the Foursquare Church conducting the rites and Halley-Olsen Funeral Chapel of Lancaster in charge of arrangements.

Mr. Martin was born in Grapeland, Calif. Nov. 8, 1888 and came to Antelope Valley in 1925. From 1909 until 1925, he'd driven his auto for his stageline between Goldfield, Nev. and Los Angeles.

Surviving Mr. Martin are four nephews, Bill Martin of Lancaster, Jim Martin of Auburn, Calif., Lester Martin of Madera and Harold Martin of Orangevale, Calif., and a niece, Lois Johnson of Hillsboro, Ore.