

Services Held For Mrs. Fern J. Olson

Final rites for Mrs. Fern J. Olson, 46, employed by the Antelope Valley Hay Growers Association for 14 years until she became ill, were conducted Tuesday at the Seventh-day Adventist Church in Lancaster. Elder James R. Hardin officiated.

Mrs. Olson, wife of Carlton E. Olson, of 45120 N. Beech Ave., Lancaster, died Friday in Pasadena, following an illness of four and one-half years.

Born Aug. 19, 1912, in New Rockford, N. D., she was graduated from the high school in that city. She served as deputy registrar of deeds in New Rockford prior to moving to California in 1939. Her marriage took place Jan. 3, 1940, in Los Angeles.

In addition to her husband she is survived by her mother, Mrs. Dollie Auringer, and a brother, Leroy Auringer, both of Lancaster.

Other survivors are two aunts, Mrs. Sidney Doyle and Mrs. Raymond Rolling, both of South Gate, and two uncles, Russell Speck of Los Angeles and Howard Speck of Canada.

Interment took place in Lancaster Cemetery.

Emmerson Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.
