

Dolly Walker

services today

Dolly Viola Walker, 69, who had resided in Antelope Valley for almost 60 years, died Dec. 17 at Mayflower Gardens after a six months illness. Her residence was 10146 W. Ave. I.

Rev. Henry Keeton of the Church of the Lakes, Presbyterian Church at Lake Hughes, will officiate at funeral services today, Dec. 19, at 1 p.m. at Mumaw Funeral Home. Burial will be in Lancaster Cemetery.

Miss Walker was a native Californian, born Sept. 27, 1903 in Santa Ana and came to Antelope Valley in 1914.

At one time she had worked for the US Government for many years as a beacon watcher on Bald Mountain.

Surviving Miss Walker are two sisters, Mrs. Florence Bennett of National City and Mrs. Marguerite Mentze of Tehachapi, and three cousins, Ernest Gookins and M. Jim Mudgett of Lancaster, and Nathan Gookins of Pasadena.