

Edith Kimbrough, Resident Since '38, Passes in Yreka

PALMDALE — A resident of Palmdale since 1938, Edith Kimbrough passed away on Monday, Feb. 15, in Yreka. She had been in failing health for several years. Death came in Yreka where she was visiting a daughter.

Mrs. Kimbrough was buried in the Antelope Valley following services at Mumaw's Funeral Home in Lancaster on Saturday. Rev. Ray Wilcox officiated at the services.

She was born in Washington, D. C., on Oct. 3, 1895, and received her early schooling in Montana, Idaho and Washington.

Mrs. Kimbrough and her husband, Walter E. Kimbrough, were married on Oct. 31, 1916, in Butte, Montana. They have been in California since 1920, residing in Los Angeles before their move to the Antelope Valley in 1938.

Besides her husband, 10 children survive her. They are Margaret Leighter of Palmdale; Doris Kolby, Yreka; Lorraine Eberhardt, Eugene, Oregon; Walter Jr., Divera; Calvin, Los Angeles;

Richard, South Gate; Rozalee Humphrey, Palmdale; Clifford, Los Angeles; Kenneth, U. S. Coast Guard; Coralee Kimbrough, Palmdale.