
Funeral Services for Judge Loft Held Last Friday Here

Funeral services were held last Friday morning at the residence in Palmdale for Judge H. L. Loft, formerly publisher of the South Antelope Valley Press, whose death occurred the preceding Monday night. The services were at 10:00, with burial in the Palmdale Cemetery. Rev. Harvey A. Hood officiated, assisted by Supervisor Roger Jessup, who read the obituary. Joe R. Eastwood, editor of the Ontario Herald, sang, accompanied by Mrs. E. E. Varner. Pallbearers were: Robt. Cameron of Lancaster, H. P. Schoeller, Richard Frahm, Walter Holmes, Ed P. Moulton and H. W. Mennig. The Mumaw Funeral Home of Lancaster had charge of the services. An escort composed of Captain Hanby and Deputies John Allen and Kenneth C. Wahl from the Sheriff's office assisted. The flowers were very beautiful and abundant.
