

Actor—

Mrs. Anna Freese, an old pioneer, passed away Sunday evening at the Rest Home at Glendale, after an illness of five months. She is the last of the Schuler family.

She was born in New Orleans, August 5, 1883, then with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Schuler, came to Los Angeles in 1886, and when Anna was five years old they moved to Acton where she attended the Soledad school. She is survived by her husband, whom she married about 32 years ago.