

Doris P. Bell

A resident of the Valley for almost 30 years, Doris P. Bell died June 13 at her residence in Palmdale. She was 66.

With Rev. Jack T. Preston the officiant, funeral services will be held today at 2 p.m. at the First United Methodist Church of Palmdale (39055 10th St. W.) and burial in Desert Lawn Memorial Park.

Friends may pay their respects at the Halley-Olsen Funeral Chapel in Palmdale today from 9 a.m. until noon.

Mrs. Bell was born in Beardstown, Ill. Jan. 5, 1917, came to Antelope Valley in 1954 and was a charter member of the United Methodist Church in Palmdale.

She's survived by her husband, Jack, of Palmdale, the couple married in Beardstown in 1939; a son, Bill Bell of San Clemente; a daughter, Cindy Bell of Palmdale; a sister, Lucille Parks of Burbank; and four nephews and nieces, Gary Phillip of North Hollywood, Jon Gilliland of Westlake Village, Penney Phillip of Burbank and Nancy Winfrey of Bakersfield.