

George Bones Sr. rites

Funeral services for Antelope Valley pioneer George Raymond Bones, Sr., 84, of Littlerock, will be conducted Tuesday, July 18, at Mumaw Funeral Home, with the Rev. Clyde Irwin of United Methodist Church of Glendora presiding.

Interment will be at the family plot at Desert Lawn Memorial Park. Viewing hours during which friends may pay their respects will be 2 to 9 p.m. Monday.

Born Dec. 24, 1893 at Los Angeles, he died July 14 in Lancaster.

Mr. Bones came to Antelope Valley in 1910, was a charter member of Lancaster Elks #1625, established 39 years ago; a member of Keppel Union School Board for 17 years; member of Littlerock Creek Irrigation District Board, 20 years; charter member (35 years) Juniper Hills Association; and a member of Littlerock Presbyterian Church.

He was married Dec. 10, 1916, to Jessie May Vosburgh who survives at the family home in Littlerock. He also leaves three sons, George R. Bones Jr., Jack S. Bones, Donald R. Bones, all of Littlerock, 10 grandchildren and 10 great grandchildren.