

Willard J. Sinclair rites

Funeral services for life-long Valley resident Willard J. Sinclair, 69, will be conducted at 11 a.m. tomorrow (Friday, July 21) in the Chapel of the Valley, Palmdale, by the Rev. Paul McFarlin of the Littlerock Community Presbyterian Church. Interment will follow at Desert Lawn Memorial Park.

The Littlerock resident was ranch foreman for Don Bones and for the past 10 years held the Pepsi Cola franchise for the Littlerock area. He was a member of the Littlerock Chamber of Commerce and served as a member of the AV Union High School District governing board between 1950-1959, sitting as president of the board his last year.

He was always interested in community development, both for the Valley and his home area, and was an avid hunter and fisherman. He was born March 2, 1909 in Los Angeles and died July 17 in Lancaster.

Mr. Sinclair is survived by his wife, Evelyn nee Carr Sinclair of the family home, whom he wed Nov. 7, 1932, in Nevada; one son, Richard Sinclair of Littlerock; one daughter, Virginia Hayes of Montana.

Two sisters, Gladys Bollman and Genevieve Ryals, both of Littlerock; seven grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.
