

Robert C. Stanley rites

Graveside services for Robert Charles Stanley, 17, will be conducted at 11 a.m. tomorrow (Friday, Aug. 10) at Desert Lawn Memorial Park by the Rev. Dwight Hamilton, Chaplain. Halley-Olsen Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

A native of Palmdale, born in the city Oct. 5, 1961, young Stanley was a past June graduate of Palmdale High School, an excellent student, and was a popular, well-known local baseball player who had made his way through the Little (Indian) League and Palominos. He had a summer position as a ride operator at Magic Mountain at the time of his death, Aug. 7, victim of a fatal 'bike-auto accident.

He is survived by his father, John Stanley, Jr., of Quartz Hill; his mother, Barbara Harkelroad of Troy, Montana; one brother, David Stanley of Quartz Hill; two sisters, Janice Alvis of Palmdale; Carol Stanley of Tucson, Arizona;

His paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Stanley of Quartz Hill and his maternal grandmother, Pearl Gibbins of Palmdale.

Visitation hours are between 3-8 p.m. today (Thursday, at Halley-Olsen Funeral Home, Palmdale Blvd. near 20th St. East.