

WOLF, Milton H., passed away Feb. 2, 1990, at age 79. He is survived by one brother, Neil

Wolf; two sisters, Lois McKay and Ellen Hall; two sisters-in-law, Wink Trueblood and Flora Wolf; also numerous nieces and nephews. Mr. Wolf lived in Palmdale for 55 years and had been the owner of The Radio Palmdale since 1945. He was a WW II veteran in the U.S. Navy and had been the past president of the Palmdale Kiwanis Club and had perfect attendance for 47 years. He was also a past member of the Palmdale Chamber of Commerce for 30 years, a member of the advisory board of Bank of America for two terms, a member of the Businessmen's Association and treasurer of the Palmdale Water District for 12 years. Services will be 2 p.m., today at Chapel of the Valley Mortuary, with the Rev. Marion Wadhams of Unity Church of Antelope Valley officiating. Interment in Desert Lawn Memorial Park. Chapel of the Valley Mortuary, Palmdale Directors.