

Catherine J. Wolfe rites

Graveside services for Catherine J. Wolfe, 65, were conducted Friday, July 14, at Desert Lawn Memorial Park by the Rev. Francis Voelcker of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Lancaster. The Chapel of the Valley Mortuary, Palmdale, was in charge of arrangements.

A Lancaster resident for 23 years, Mrs. Wolfe had been employed as an LVN (licensed vocational nurse) at Lancaster Community Hospital since 1963 until she retired in November, 1977, and was honored by the hospital staff. She was born Nov. 22, 1912, in Los Angeles and died July 11 in Lancaster.

Mrs. Wolfe is survived by three sons, Russell Wolfe of Oakland; Todd Wolfe of Quartz Hill; Chris Wolfe of Lancaster; one daughter, Joanne Stice of Lancaster;

Three brothers, Aven, Mac and Deloss "Si" Wolfe, all of Manhattan Beach; three sisters, Dorothy Sparks of Mexico; Libby Seeley of Walnut Creek; Barbara Burgess of West Virginia and 13 grandchildren.