

Thomas Yingling rites

Thomas Clinton Yingling, custodian for the Palmdale School District, died May 14 in the Antelope Valley Medical Center. He was 55 and a resident of Palmdale.

With Dr. Rodney Allee of the First Christian Church the officiant, funeral services were held May 16 at Halley-Olsen Funeral Chapel in Palmdale and burial in Desert Lawn Memorial Park.

Mr. Yingling was born May 30, 1923 in Pangburn, Ark., and was a veteran of World War II, serving in the Army. He came to Antelope Valley 11 years ago.

Surviving are his wife, Jean, of Palmdale; three daughters, Linda Tescier, Christine Kruger and Teresa Yingling of Palmdale; a son, James C. Yingling of Alabama; three brothers, Claude and Woodrow Yingling of Palmdale and Cletus Yingling of Pasadena; a sister, Margie Pratt of Palmdale; and 11 grandchildren.