

OBITUARIES

BONES, George R. Jr., born July 22, 1925, in Littlerock, Calif., passed away Nov. 30, 1995, in Lancaster, Calif. Survived by his wife of 51 years, Dorothy Bones; children, Bradley and Doug Bones, Denece Bones Parsons and her husband, Terry; brother, Jack Bones Sr., all of Littlerock. Also survived by four grandchildren and three step-grandchildren. Bones was a native and lifelong resident of Littlerock. His family's pear and peach orchards have graced Littlerock for over 60 years. His life was devoted to his family, farms and community. He attended elementary school in Littlerock and attended Antelope Valley High School, playing on the varsity football, basketball and track teams. Bones served in the Pacific during World War II from 1944-1945. He received a medal and honorary citation for bravery and service for saving the lives of other servicemen. A dedicated community leader, he served for 15 years on the Keppel Union School Bord. He was the first engineer on the Littlerock Volunteer Fire Department for many years. He was a member of the Lancaster Elks Club for 25 years and served on the State Pear & Peach Advisory Boards in Sacramento. His compassion assisted many people in the community, and many looked up to him with respect and admiration for his dedication to his community, family and friends. Visitation will be held 1 to 5 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 3, 1995, at Chapel of the Valley Mortuary, Palmdale. Services will be held at 1 p.m. Monday, Dec. 4, at the Littlerock Community Presbyterian Church, Littlerock, Calif., with the Rev. Robert Frisbee officiating. Interment to follow at Desert Lawn Memorial Park. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Mr. Bones name to the George Bones Memorial Education Fund, c/o P.O. Box 1015, Littlerock, CA 93543. Chapel of the Valley Mortuary, Palmdale.
