

Body Packed Out

These men all helped in carrying the body out to the top of the Blue Ridge Road, where Mumaw's ambulance was waiting. Part of the return journey was made with the body carried on mule back, but in many places the trail was too narrow, and the men carried him in their arms. They reached the ambulance about 4:15 o'clock Sunday morning.

Was High School Student

Hubert was a popular young high school student, ready to enter his senior year at A. V. this fall. He had received his grammar school education at Keppel Union.

He was born December 1, 1920, at Cameron, Texas, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Jack Evans. His mother

(Continued on Page 2.)