

J. H. O'BRIEN OF LANCASTER DIES IN CITY HOSPITAL

The death of Jewell Henry O'Brien, of 1118 Elm Ave., Lancaster, occurred Monday, December 5th, in a Los Angeles hospital, following a lingering illness. Services are to be held in Lancaster Friday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock, at the Episcopal Church, with Rev. Boyd Parker officiating.

Mr. O'Brien was born November 20, 1874, in Muncie, Indiana. During his younger days he was employed as a shipping clerk for a steamship company. He had been a resident of California fourteen years, and of Antelope Valley twelve.

His widow, Mrs. Edith O'Brien, survives.
