

---

Carl L. Johnson of the Lake View Dairy sustained a serious accident yesterday morning by being kicked by a horse. The wound is directly over the left eye, and a half inch lower would have made an entirely different story. As it is Carl is about his duties as usual, delivering milk and cream.

---