

Funeral Rites Held For Gilpen Lindsey; Here Since 1908

Funeral services for Gilpen S. Lindsey, Palmdale resident since 1908, were held Wednesday at 10 A. M. at the Mumaw Funeral Home, Lancaster, with the Rev. John G. Bennett of Palmdale Community Presbyterian Church delivering the sermon. Interment was in the Palmdale Cemetery. He had not been well for over a year.

Mr. Lindsey, 73, had been engaged in pear-growing and general ranching since he came to Palmdale from Los Angeles. During World War II, he did general carpentry work at the Mojave Marine Base.

During his years in Palmdale, Mr. Lindsey was an early member of the Kiwanis Club; he was also a member of the Independent Order of Foresters and a Mason.

Born June 17, 1877, in Sedalia, Mo., he came to Los Angeles in his childhood. He attended the old Spring Street Grammar School there. Later, he went to Manitou, Colorado, where he was engaged in the photography business. There he married Anna Belle Gustave November 27, 1902. In 1904, he returned to Los Angeles, where he remained, still in the photography business, until he came to Palmdale.

Two daughters, were born of his marriage, one now living, Mrs. Ruth E. Savage of San Diego. His wife survives him and two granddaughters, Mrs. Allene J. Mueller of San Diego and Mrs. Laura Mae Johnston of Palmdale and three great grand-children.
