

Mrs. Hannah Moore Old Valley Resident Passed January 21

Mrs. J. H. P. (Hannah) Moore passed away at her home in Palmdale last Monday, January 21, at 6:40 p. m., after a lingering illness of many months. It had been known for a long time that she could not survive, and her passing did not come as a surprise or shock.

Last rites will be held at the Palmdale Community church to morrow, Friday, January 25, at 2 p. m., the Rev. Harvey A. Hood officiating. Interment will be made at the Palmdale Cemetery in the family plot, where reposes her former husband, Richard Nagel.

Mrs. Hannah Moore was born in Barssel, Germany, December 12, 1862, and came to this country with her parents at the age of 12. The family lived in Orange for a few years and came to the valley in 1884, making their first home at old Barrel Springs.

She, with her former husband, Richard Nagel, built what is now known as the Palmdale Inn, which she operated for some 12 years.

She was married to J. H. P. Moore on May 3, 1918, at Oakland, California. In April of 1926 the building known as "Moore's Place," was completed, and this was operated by herself and the Moore family until about two years ago.

She leaves her husband, J. H. P. Moore, a daughter, Mrs. Dora Ritter, and her mother, Mrs. Dorothea Nagle, to mourn her loss. Her mother will be 89 the 29th of this month, and is still hale and hearty. There are also three grandchildren in Mrs. Dora Ritter's family.

The long months of suffering are at an end, and after all death was the "kind old nurse" that rocked her to sleep. The faithful attention of her loved ones in those long days of endless suffering is a picture only of love. Ever at her side was her devoted husband, her daughter, and Mother Moore.

The entire community will join in sympathy to those left to mourn her loss.
