

Rancher Who Came To AV in 1916 Dies

Reby G. Stanley, 64, passed away in Burbank on September 9, after an illness that lasted three years.

He came to the Valley in 1916 from Kentucky, left in '28 and returned nine years later. He was principally occupied in ranching the majority of his life.

In 1941 he moved to Burbank where he resided until his death.

Funeral services were held at the Hoover Street Baptist Church in Burbank with Dr. Claude F. Moffitt conducting the services.

He was interred in the Palmdale Cemetery.

He is survived by his wife Florence, and a daughter, Mary Thomas of Los Angeles, two sisters, Mrs. Cosby Lintemoot and Mrs. George Ellis of Littlerock, and a brother, Grover, residing in northern California.
